Moving from an Ordinary Life into Extraordinary Purpose

Whether delivering keynotes, facilitating workshops or inspiring young adults, speaker and author Tonya Telesco is dedicated to helping others find their voice, build better relationships, and follow their dreams. As a Certified John Maxwell Speaker and DISC Certified Trainer with Personality Insights Institute, she is recognized for her expertise in relationship building and leadership development. Her hunger to infuse others with passion and purpose is contagious, motivating and fun. She brings proven strategies to equip individuals and organizations to move from comfortable complacency to results that are extraordinary. She considers the world her office but calls Southlake, Texas home.

What others are saying . . .

"Tonya is the real deal. Expect to not only be touched in your mind but spirit as well. She is the kind of person that will influence your life and help you to become more."

~ Robert Rohm, Ph. D President, Personality Insights, Atlanta Georgia

"Tonya reminded me that building positive relationships, not programs is the real key to success in this life. Every person needs to hear this!"

~ John Records from Lawrence, Kansas

"Tonya melds powerful principles that were simple and doable . . . just what I needed to get moving, find my 'why,' and take ownership of my destiny."

~ Karen DeArmond Garder, Founder of Crack the Silence

"If you are serious about building great relationships in your business and personal life, Tonya is the people expert. She shares incredible tips to help you live a more fulfilled and successful life."

~ Frank Shankwitz – Founder, The Make-A-Wish Foundation
